EC Amateur Champs at the Links

The duel in the dunes has concluded. Naldo Klassen is the 2018 EP Matchplay Champion. It was a tough match against Pieter Zietsman, according to St Francis Links, where the golfing event took place.

"Naldo took an early lead in the morning and although Pieter tried to crawl back, Naldo proved to be consistently good. After 34 holes the guys shook hands and Naldo won 3/2. It was an Epic battle.

"Hugo Maritz was victorious in the plate final playing against the young Gieshaine Matthews. The experience showed by Maritz proved too much and the match was won 5/4. Gieshaine made a strong comeback however Hugo proved to be very strong."

This past weekend (4 February) we played longer than 4 tees back on each nine and the weather performed providing a little rain as a respite to the warm, windless day. See the attached results sheet.

The tournament, played over two weekends, has proven to be a magnificent event for the Links, giving back to golf by sharing this great course, and for the amateurs in the region, who have participated over the years. We have watched great young amateurs who have competed here, go on to the professional ranks; we have watched very capable young junior golfers grow and hone their skills over the years and we have watched seasoned players keep their form and even improve their play here.

This year in the 36-hole Stroke play, the scores were the best ever. The course played longer with 4 tees back on each nine and the weather performed providing a little rain as a respite to the warm, windless day. See the attached results sheet.

The Match play began on Sunday morning with the top 32 players advancing. Match play winners advance in the main division and first-round losers moved on to the Plate. All players will complete this weekend in the quarter-finals on Saturday morning, semi-finals in the afternoon and 36-hole finals on Sunday.

The golf has been fantastic with players scoring well-under par in their Match Play wins. One golfer excelled coming from 3-down with five holes to play, winning the next five in a row for a 2-up result.
