

Jenni Gault BellaBabe 2018

Looking for 'Poised Elegance with a Sparkle'

Excitement among the finalists and members of the public is mounting ahead of the Gala Event by Jenni Gault International that will see one lady crowned as the holder for 12 months of the title 'Bella Babe 2018'.

Earlier this year Jenni Gault International Jewellery Design launched Bella Babe 2018 and has been looking for a fresh and fabulous young lady aged 19-24 with a passion for fashion. Someone with poised elegance and sparkle, someone to represent Neilson Mandela Bay and Jenni Gault's brand at glamorous VIP events, locally and nationally. Someone with style and radiance, inside and out.

The 12 finalists were selected by a panel of four judges and were announced on 6 Jun at the stylish and upmarket Champagne Events venue in Sea View. Since then these finalists have been and are still being enriched with a series of workshops and events that include Personal Grooming and Branding, Modelling, Photo shoots, Boot camp and team building, Self-defence, Etiquette, motivation, dancing, radio interviews and how to handle them.

Jenni Gault International is insatiable in the discerning young ladies skills that will continue to benefit them for years to come. One of the ladies will be chosen as the brand ambassador for JGI for 12 months. This Ambassador will attend JG events as well as be expected to speak, network and promote the JG brand and PE at all required events (Golf days, JG shows, Playing for Pink, Wholesaler evenings- to name a few). Social Media representation is a key aspect to this title.

The finalists also have a series of workshops and events to attend for personal development and in preparation for the Gala event. The finalists are judged throughout this process by professionals hosting the workshops. They are expected to host a Private Viewing at the Jenni Gault International Studio forming the charity element of their campaign. Twelve charities are the beneficiaries and they include SPCA Humansdorp and Cheshire Homes.

The gala event on 8 August includes the launch of the new 2018/2019 Jenni Gault Range, a fashion show from the finalists (Cocktail wear, High Fashion, Evening Wear) entertainment by local celebrity and MC Niqui Cloete-Barress.

And the most exciting moment everyone is looking forward to is when one finalist is announced as the 'Jenni Gault 2018 BellaBabe' title holder for the 12 month term.

Vintage Seniors' lunch, a joyous occasion

The Ladies Guild of St Francis Bay United Church transformed the St Francis Bowling Club to a wonderful yesteryear atmosphere for their annual senior citizen's luncheon. This year's exciting theme was 'Vintage' and the hall was splendidly decorated with vintage bicycles, pianos of fresh roses, lavender and carnations beautifully arranged.

All guests were greeted with a glass of sherry served out of vintage decanters. Then everyone was invited into the dining room that had been transformed by an amazing collection of artefacts set among beautifully decorated tables of eight where friends gathered to catch up on their long-standing relationships and to be entertained by members of St Francis United Church's music team. This carried them back in a nostalgic sing-a-long and they then enjoyed a lovely homemade soup, main course and pudding lovingly prepared, cooked and served by the 24 Ladies' Guild hostesses.

A prize was given to the 'oldest' senior in the room who was an amazing 96 years-old lady.

The United Church Ladies Guild and the Samaritan volunteers said they were blessed to honour the senior citizens with such a happy and special occasion. There was good fellowship and good entertainment with lots of happy reminiscences on this joyous occasion.
